SUNDAY READINGS

Genesis 3.9-15, 20 The story of the Fall is an analysis of human temptation and sin. Sin brings shame on us: we do our best, like both the man and the woman, to blame someone else, but in the end we know we are defenceless and naked before God. We know that we deserve our penalties, but the wonderful thing about the biblical story is that God continues to care for us: he himself thoughtfully sews clothes for the man and the woman to hide their embarrassment. More important, God promises that evil will not triumph for ever. The penalties of hard labour and pain come not from divine vindictiveness but from human sinfulness: we are no longer in perfect harmony with God. If we were in harmony with God our confidence in him would spare us the pain. The reading pairs with the gospel reading, since it introduces Satan, the Tempter. The final bit is a 'Just So Story' of the animal world, explaining how the sinewy snake came into being: the proud, fiery serpent lost its legs and was reduced to being a mere big worm.

2 Corinthians 4.13-5.1 Is this an older St Paul, who feels that he is failing, ('this human nature of ours falling into decay'), and is looking forward to death, or rather to the weight of glory at the Resurrection? In last Sunday's reading, he was positive enough, bouncing up again after the hard knocks received in the gladiatorial combats of life. Contrariwise, in Philippians 1.21, he is caught in a dilemma and writes: 'Life to me, of course, is Christ, but then death would be a positive gain.' Such is his faith and conviction of the saving power of Christ that he longs to be fully united with Christ. He looks forward to 'the weight of glory' that must be the goal of every Christian. Glory is a specifically divine property. Moses was allowed to see the awesome divine glory, but the face of God he could not see. Isaiah was bowled over by his experience of the divine glory in the Temple, contrasting with his own awareness of his uncleanness. It seems that for St Paul to feel 'the utterly incomparable, eternal weight of glory' is to be bathed in the divine presence and to enjoy eternally the company of God.

St Mark 3:20-35 The first stage of Jesus' ministry comes to an end. He is rejected as 'out of his mind' by his own family. Then he is rejected by the scribes as being in league with Beelzebul. Finally, his family again arrive, looking for him, and he turns to those who are listening to him as his true family. This all leads into the Parable of the Sower, which seems to be Jesus' reflection on his rejection by most people, and his fruitful acceptance by a small number of disciples. It is, of course, significant that the scribes cannot deny that he drives out evil spirits. If even his enemies are forced to admit it, it must be true. The best they can do is sarcastically to ascribe his powers to the chief of evil spirits, here named 'Beelzebub' or 'Beelzebul' (two different versions of the text). The former name means 'lord of the flies', probably a mocking corruption of the latter, which means 'lord prince', the title of a local deity. The whole scene presents an agonizing picture of the iso-

Sunday 26 August 2018, WMOF2018 will close with a solemn Eucharistic Celebration that will gather thousands of people from Ireland and all over the world. More information: <http://www.worldmeeting2018.ie/en/>

SHARE THE JOURNEY Pope Francis has launched a new global campaign to stand up for the rights of refugees and migrants. The timescale of the campaign is from now until the Pope goes to address the UN in September 2018. A week of action will also take place during Refugee Week in June.

In support of the campaign, CAFOD are aiming to walk 24,901 miles – the distance around the whole world! We are inviting all schools and parishes to engage in this campaign. It's an act of solidarity to Share the Journey with our global neighbours fleeing their homes. Every step you take, together with others from across the England and Wales, will send a message to world leaders that they must step up too. They need to act with courage and compassion when they agree ambitious new UN agreements on refugees and migration in 2018. Resources are available on their website at: <https://cafod.org.uk> An online petition is up and running already.

SHARE THE JOURNEY LOCAL EVENT Join our walk and add your miles to CAFOD's total: Sunday July 22nd at Milton Country Park. Bring a picnic to share at 13:00 and/or walk from 14:00 More details from Mary Watkins 07985275346

THE GOSPEL OF LIFE IN CAMBRIDGE

In accordance with the teaching of the Catholic Church, we aim to:

- 1.) Promote and encourage regular prayer for the creation of a Civilisation of Love to replace the culture of death;
- 2.) Protect and defend every human life from conception to natural death;
- 3.) Work with organisations that offer moral and practical support to expectant mothers in hardship;
- 4.) Share information with fellow parishioners about all relevant issues.

Author, thou, of my inmost being, didst thou not form me in my mother's womb?

I praise thee for my wondrous fashioning, for all the wonders of thy creation. (Ps. 138 vv.13,14)

OUR PARISH PRAYER

O God, through Baptism you have made us your children, heirs of heaven and members of the Church. Make our parish a family of one heart and mind in love towards you. Grant that our common life and work may be an example to all about us. Guide our Rector and assistant Priests in their work along with all those involved in ministry. Acknowledge the intercessions of Our Blessed Lady of The Assumption and The English Martyrs, our patrons; and keep us secure in your love. We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen

SICK AND HOUSEBOUND PARISHIONERS

Please pray for those who are sick in hospital or at home and for those who are housebound. For those who have died and for all those whose anniversary of death occurs at this time. May their souls and the souls of all the Faithful Departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

Loving God, your Son accepted our sufferings to teach us the virtue of patience in human illness. Hear our prayers for our sick brothers and sisters. May all who suffer pain, illness, disease, and the frailty of old age realise that they have been chosen to be saints and know that they are joined to Christ in his suffering for the salvation of the world. Amen

Every blessing for the coming week!
Mgr Canon Eugène Harkness, Fr Peter Raj,
Fr Justine Onyemaechi and Sem. Anthony Asomugha.

THE GDPR LEGISLATION

The Clergy of the Diocese had an information session on Tuesday of this past week given by a senior member of the Catholic Insurance Service regarding the new GDPR legislation which is now in force.

It means, for instance, that without the written consent of those who are ill (they and they alone can give it) we are no longer able to publish their names in the newsletter.

We all realise that this seems to be a bit of a blow for us pastorally but we do pray for those who are ill and will continue to do so. Likewise, Mass Intentions for those who are living should be simply listed as a Private Intention with the surname of the donor. One can always send a Mass card to the one for whom Mass is being offered so that they know it will be for them.

BAPTISM By appointment with the Clergy.
HOLY MATRIMONY For holy matrimony,
6 months' notice is required.

FOR SAFETY REASONS,
ALL CHILDREN MUST BE ACCOMPANIED TO THE TOILET BY A PARENT OR ADULT CARER.
