THIS SUNDAY’S READINGS

Isaiah 6:1-8 In the year of King Uzziah’s death I saw the Lord seated on a high throne; his train filled the sanctuary; above him stood seraphs, each one with six wings. And they cried out one to another in this way, “Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts. His glory fills the whole earth.” The foundations of the threshold shook with the voice of the one who cried out, and the Temple was filled with smoke. I said, “What a wretched state I am in! I am lost, for I am a man of unclean lips and I live among a people of unclean lips, and my eyes have looked at the King, the Lord of hosts.” Then one of the seraphs flew to me, holding in his hand a live coal which he had taken from the altar with a pair of tongs. With this he touched my mouth and said, “See now, this has touched your lips; your sin is taken away, your iniquity is purged.” Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, “Whom shall I send? Who

1 Corinthians 15:3-8. 11 In the first place, I taught you what I had been taught myself, namely that Christ died for our sins, in accordance with the scriptures; that he was buried; and that he was raised to life on the third day, in accordance with the scriptures; that he appeared first to Cephas and secondly to the Twelve. Next he appeared to more than five hundred of the brothers at the same time, most of whom are still alive, though some have died; then he appeared to James, and then to all the apostles; and last of all he appeared to me too; it was as though I was born when no one expected it. But what matters is that I preach what they preach, and this is what you all believed.

Luke 5:1-11 There were obviously several different versions of the call of the first disciples circulating in the early Church. In the gospels of Mark and Matthew, Jesus is passing along the shore of the lake when he calls two pairs of disciples. In John it takes place where John the Baptist was preaching. The story in Luke has many similarities to the story at the end of John’s gospel after the Resurrection, when the risen Christ commissions Peter: a night of failed fishing is followed by a huge catch as a consequence of obedience to Jesus’ instructions, and so the Church has always seen this event as signifying the need for obedience to Christ. Luke’s version combines the same play on words as in Mark and Matthew about fishing for people, but Luke sets the story a little later. In Mark the fishermen have never seen Jesus and follow him blindly; in Luke Peter and his friends have already got to know Jesus before they are commissioned. A special feature in Luke is Peter’s cry that he is an unworthy sinner. Luke often teaches us that no one can be a disciple of Jesus without first admitting their sinfulness: Zacchaeus the tax-collector (Luke 19:1-10), and the woman who wept at Jesus’ feet (Luke 7:36-50) are other examples.

AID TO THE CHURCH IN NEED

After years of fear, violence and death Christians of Iraq are slowly returning to their ancient homelands of the Nineveh Plains. The conflict in Iraq, which forced the Christian population to flee for their lives, began in 2014 when extremist group Daesh (ISIS) invaded with a campaign of kidnap, forced conversion, torture and murder. With Daesh finally defeated in Iraq, the long road of recovery has just begun.

Thanks to you - ACN projects are providing emergency aid to huge numbers of Christians, working to rebuild their homes and sustain the Church, helping them to rebuild communities in the region. But there is still a long way to go and much more to do. We rely on your prayers and compassion. <https://acnuk.org/>

FOODBANK - Very many thanks for your generous donations of food and funds (£717.35). The next collection will be on 23rd/24th February. An updated shopping list is on the noticeboards - please note - items urgently needed are in blue.

Can You Help? We need custodians to mind the exhibition and sell the catalogue. If you can give some time please contact registers@olem.org.uk

PARISH PRAYER

O God, through Baptism you have made us your children, heirs of heaven and members of the Church. Make our parish a family of one heart and mind in love towards you. Grant that our common life and work may be an example to all about us. Guide our Rector and assistant Priests in their work along with all those involved in ministry. Acknowledge the intercessions of Our Blessed Lady of The Assumption and The English Martyrs, our patrons; and keep us secure in your love. We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God for ever and ever. Amen.

SICK AND HOUSEBOUND PARISHIONERS

Please pray for those who are sick in hospital or at home and for those who are housebound. For those who have died and for all those whose anniversary of death occurs at this time. May their souls and the souls of all the Faithful Departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

Loving God, your Son accepted our sufferings to teach us the virtue of patience in human illness. Hear our prayers for our sick brothers and sisters. May all who suffer pain, illness, disease, and the frailty of old age realise that they have been chosen to be saints and know that they are joined to Christ in his suffering for the salvation of the world. Amen

HOW TO HAVE A MASS OFFERED Please fill-in a Mass Intention envelope which you will either find at the back of Church or alternatively you may ask the priest for one in the Sacristy.

Once completed, either place it in the Collection bags on Saturday evening/Sunday or put it through the Rectory letterbox.

It is important that you use on the pre-printed Mass Intention envelopes so that we know who has requested the Mass. The surname donor will always appear in the newsletter but only the Christian (first) name of anyone living can be printed. (see below GDPR Legislation).

THE GDPR LEGISLATION

Catholic Insurance Service have given instructions to the Diocese regarding the new GDPR legislation which is now in force.

It means, for instance, that without the written consent of those who are ill (they and they alone can give it) we are no longer able to publish their names in the newsletter.

We all realise that this seems to be a bit of a blow for us pastorally but we do pray for those who are ill and will continue to do so. Likewise, Mass Intentions for those who are living should be simply listed with a first name (if appropriate) or listed as a Private Intention with the surname of the donor so that you can recognise it is the Mass you have requested.

Every blessing for the coming week!

Fr Justin Onyemaechi
Fr Simon Leworthy
Fr Adrian Gates
